ALL SEMINARY PERSONNEL--FACULTY, STUDENTS, ADMINISTRATION, STAFF: The photographs for which incoming students have been given appointment slips are to be used in the 1971-72 Directory. He has announced his general topic as "Death as Social Purpose." The speeches will be given in Miller Chapel starting at 7:45 P.M. each date. His concern to the condition of man has led Stringfellow, long before the "war on poverty", to work as a white lawyer in the black ghetto. Indicted for harboring Jesuit poet-priest Daniel Berrigan (and later released), he has been active in the defense of the Reverend Philip Berrigan and the other defendants at Harrisburg. He served also as counsel to Bishop James Pike, defending the late churchman against a charge of heresy.

A graduate of Bates College and Harvard Law School, Dr. Stringfellow is a Guggenheim Fellow and the recipient of several honorary degrees. Barth called him the "most conscientious and thoughtful" mind he had met in America; Time says that he is "one of Christianity's most persuasive critics from within"; and The Nation, "a radically relevant Christian--an extremely rare species."

SENIOR INTERVIEWS AND PLACEMENT CONFERENCES HAVE AN EARLY START. Mr. Byers has initiated his interviews with all graduating MRE and M.Div. students. These interviews are intended to include also those who are completing degree work for MSW at Rutgers in connection with their M.Div. program at Princeton. These interviews are also intended to include students who will complete their senior requirements by the end of Summer School, even though they will not actually receive their diplomas and graduate until June of 1973. Persons in these categories who have not yet been reached through Mr. Byers' office should report to Room 121, Hodge Hall, and make themselves known to Mrs. Lang, who will arrange appointments for interviews at a very early date.

By the end of the fourth week in school, Mr. Byers had completed interviews in group meetings with 108 out of 130 seniors. Individual interviews have begun and are moving at a quick pace. There is a deadline of November 30 for completing all group meetings and individual interviews with all members of the senior class, including those who will complete their courses by the end of Summer School.

CHAPEL GROUP HAS BEGUN ACTIVITY

The group of students interested in working on the Chapel services has met twice and at their second meeting elected Mr. Harold Schnedler, Senior, and Mr. James Pohlhammer, Junior, as Co-Chairmen of the Chapel Group.

Hal and Jim have begun some exciting projects with the group. Task forces have already been named which will be working in the fields of drama, fabric arts, and for special services for special occasions. A group is forming which will concern itself with music and another which will be developing biblical worship statements.

Much of the discussions centered around criteria for our chapel worship. A number of suggestions will be given to the faculty-student chapel committee for discussion in the near future.

The next meeting of the Chapel Group will be November 3 at 7:15 P.M. Any persons interested in joining one of the task groups or in forming new task groups are invited to come to the next meeting.

SPORTS

Intramural Football: The second week of the intramural football season was a real thriller (honest). In the first game, the Hodge Heroes scored on a long pass from Pat Hughes to Craig Butler. These 6 points were enough to beat the North Neptunes, 6-0. On the Princeton-Windsor Field the P.-W. Warriors beat the Erdman Eagles 20-12. Bill Forbes was the outstanding player in this game. He ran back a punt for one tally and scored another TD on a long pass from Tom Kort. The Alex Alligators, under the expert coaching of Brad "Grum" Mather, shut out the Brown Bombers 12-0. In this game Gator quarterback Bill Grimble hit John Hershey and Jim Krauss on touchdown strikes. After the second week of competition, Alex and P.-W are tied for the league lead. Hodge and North are tied for second. The Erdman Eagles are deadlocked with the Brown Bombers for the cellar position

EAST PAKISTAN REFUGEES - THE NOVEMBER 3 FAST TO SAVE A PEOPLE. Unfortunately, the following information was received November 2. However, no time limit has been put on gifts resulting from a fast.

24 UNITED STATES SENATORS and CONGRESSMEN on October 25 gave their support to the November 3 FAST TO SAVE A PEOPLE. The observance scheduled for that day by college and high school students throughout the nation called for going hungry and giving the money normally spent on food to provide nourishment for starving East Pakistani refugees in India. Projected as the largest people-to-people relief mission ever undertaken by a generation of Americans, it is hoped that the FAST will spread to the rest of the community.

Among the members of Congress sponsoring the FAST is Senator Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, Chairman of the U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Refugees, who made a first-hand inspection of the Pakistani camps in India in August.*

Mrs. Theodora C. Foster, Executive Director of Oxfam-America, Inc., Washington, D.C., which is jointly sponsoring the observance with Project Relief, an organization based in Providence, Rhode Island, said 9,000,000 refugees from East Pakistan have barely subsisted in the past six months. "The food money saved by one student on [one day] and donated to the Oxfam program helps sustain three human beings for a month--sustains them in all respects, not just food. The Indian Government spends 15c a day per refugee for a basic food diet. It is doing a splendid, incredible job, but the needs do not stop at bulk foods. Thousands of people will die, mostly small children, unless they get extra food, in addition to the government ration."

Money from the fast will go directly to Oxfam's Field Directors for buying necessary materials in India, much cheaper when bought there and also injects needed cash into the depressed Indian economy. "This specially earmarked campaign does not deduct administrative costs from the proceeds of the FAST day," Mrs. Foster pointed out. "Oxfam-America is one autonomous part of a multinational organization [which] has 29 years of relief and development experience in India as well as throughout the world. Working closely with local Indian groups, Oxfam has achieved an exceptional record for the efficient management of funds and for the production of maximum relief for each dollar received."

Contributions for the East Pakistani refugees, which are tax exempt, should be sent to: Oxfam-America, Inc., 120 East 32d Street, New York City 10016.

*Other sponsoring Senators and Congressmen include: Senators Alloft (Colo.), Bayh (Ind.), Church (Idaho), Cranston (Calif), Gravel (Alaska), Hart (Mich), Hughes (Iowa), Humphrey (Minn), McGovern (S. Dak.), Mondale (Minn), Moss (Utah), Muskie (Maine), Proxmire (Wis.), Saxbe (Ohio), Stevenson (Ill.), Tunney (Calif.) and Williams (N.J.); and Congressmen Dellums (Calif.), Fraser (Minn.), Gallagher (N.J.), Hamilton (Ind.), Mitchell (Md.) and Morse (Mass.)

COPY FOR WINESKIN must be received not later than 12 noon on the Tuesday of the week preceding desired publication. Notices should be typed or printed and signed. Please send them via campus mail (at the switchboard), addressed to THE WINESKIN. Cara Davis Smith, Editor

DEPARTMENT OF FULLER EXPLANATIONS
(Editorial Edition)

Dear Reader:

When your Editor makes errors, she is not half-hearted about it; she goes all out and makes a thorough going job of the thing.

Dr. J. Christy Wilson, Jr., will speak on "The Revelation of Christ to an Afghan," in Chapel on Thursday morning. However, he is not Princeton Seminary's Dean of Field Education, Emeritus, but his equally qualified and loved son. We have already conveyed our apologies to Dr. Wilson and our thanks to the (by 9 A.M., Friday) 17 people who have so far telephoned or dropped in to enlighten us. The younger Dr. Wilson is Master-in-Residence at Hodge Hall.

Dr. Daniel Day Williams will speak on "Grace and Groups"; the lecture is the third of his four-lecture series. "Time, Death and Hope in Process Theology," the fourth presentation, will be given December 9 at 7:30 P.M. in the Main Lounge of the Campus Center.

They co-authored "The H Persuasion," which details the approach of Aesthetic Realism to homosexuality and discusses permanent changes to heterosexuality achieved through the study of this philosophy. See also the sheet circularized earlier this week.

The final Wednesday of the intramural football season was met with a surprising lack of enthusiasm. The Erdman Eagles failed to appear for their game with the Alex Alligators. Rumors have it that the undefeated Gators supplied the Eagles with beer money to insure a perfect season.The P.W. Warriors, who needed a victory last week to keep them in the scrap for the league title, dropped a further slot in the standings by dropping their final encounter to the underrated North Neptunes, 19-6. The Neptunes' victory was led by quarterback Glen Rainsley, who fired two touchdown tosses to Bob Lee and a third to the fleet-footed Dave Vander Zwaag. The Warrior touchdown pass was caught by Bill Forbes. Tom Kort fired the 6-point missile.The Hodge Heroes, playing with only 6 members present, defeated the Brown Bombers by the score of 22-0. The passing combination of Craig Butler to Vince DeLalla accounted for two of the Heroes' three tallies. Graham Patterson caught the final Hodge touchdown.

This Wednesday's games meant that the Alex Alligators captured the league trophy. The final league standings are:

Team	Win	Lose	Pct.
1. Alex Alligators	5	0	1.000
2. Hodge Heroes	4	1	.800
3. North Neptunes	3	2	.600
4. Princeton-Windsor Warriors	2	3	.400
5. Brown Bombers	1	4	.200
6. Erdman Eagles	0	5	.000

The champion Alex Alligators were not only undefeated--they were unscored upon. Alex was primarily a rookie team, with the steadying influence of veterans Steve Pierce and Gary Dill. Coach Brad Mather organized an outstanding defensive squad anchored by the quickest secondary this side of Carnegie Lake. The deep defensive men were Dan Thomas, Virston Choy, Jimm Krauss and Steve Pierce. These men successfully kept the Gator goal line uncrossed. Gary Dill and Bob White kept continual pressure on the oppositions quarterbacks with the aid of linebackers Dick Ramsey and John Hershey. While the Gator defense rested, the Alex offense scored their share of points. Bill Grimbol, a rookie quarterback, used a strong pitching arm to lead the offense. Tom York blinded the opposition with his speedy pass routes.

The Hodge Heroes rarely had eight players, but this all-veteran team represented the honor of Hodge Hall extremely well. They dropped their opening game to the Alligators, but won their next four. Two seasoned stars, Vince DeLalla and Craig Butler, accounted for a large portion of the Heroes' offensive and defensive punch. Tom Taggart, Graham Patterson, Randy Peyton, Mike Meyers and George Abdo also aided the Heroic Heroes' efforts.

The North Neptunes were greatly underrated by the Nevada Odds makers. The Neptunes were primarily a rookie squad led by quarterback Glen Rainsley. His favorite target was the "mile-high" center Robert Lee. The Neptunes had a number of other stars, who pushed the team above the .500 mark. The Neptunes gave the champion Alex Gators a scare in their contest with them by not allowing the Gators to score any touchdowns. The Gators' only points came on a safety. The jewel in the Neptune crown was the season-ending victory over the P.-W. Warriors.

The married Warriors started off the season like they would conquer all comers. The P.-W. Warriors won their first two games easily, but then collapsed at the season's end. Their attack was led by quarterback Tom Kort, who frequently tossed to Bill Forbes for touchdowns. The Warriors' large squad consisted of stalwarts like Barry Click (team organizer), Terry Woodbury, Gary Dennis, Deal Hudson (the league's #1 punter) and Jack Hughes.

The Brown Bombers' only victory came when the Erdman Eagles were late for the team bus. The Bombers had little to cheer about. Most of the team are seasoned veterans, who are now being passed around on waivers. Jamie Churchill and Dave Blackburn shared the quarterbacking chores. There was a definite lack of pass catchers. Bert Watkins anchored the offensive and defensive lines. Rookies Keenan Orro, Peter Jordan, Tom Gibbons and Ed Haldorson will not have to work too hard to improve on this year's record.

The Erdman Eagles had little to cheer about. They appeared for their first two contests and then flew south for the rest of the season.

The results of the coach's poll have made Craig Butler the outstanding player of the year. Brad Mather was elected coach of the year for his work with the Alex rookies. The coaches felt that it would be unwise to select an all-star squad, for fear that the stars might demand higher salaries next season.

Thank you to the athletic representatives who helped this season run so smoothly.

I NEVER SAW ANOTHER BUTTERFLY

The internationally known Columbus Boychoir of Princeton will make its first visit to the Seminary Chapel on Wednesday, December 8, at 10:00 A.M. They will sing Charles Davidson's "I Never Saw Another Butterfly."

"Butterflies do not live here in the ghetto," reads the last line of a poem written in 1942 by one of the young Jewish inmates of Terezin concentration camp in Czechoslovakia. The poem is the only record of the child's life. Of 15,000 children who passed through Terezin on their way to Nazi extermination campus from 1942 to 1944 only 100 survived.

But the children of Terezin left behind a legacy to mankind. Many of those at the camp were encouraged to write poetry and draw pictures of what they saw around them. After the war thousands of the drawings and scores of the poems were turned over to the State Jewish Museum in Prague. Some of these works were subsequently collected in the book "I Never Saw Another Butterfly," from which the present work derives its title.

COACH'S CORNER

IMPORTANT NOTICE CONCERNING INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL:

The intramural basketball season will begin on Tuesday, February 8, 1972. All games will be played on Tuesday evenings. Our intramural games are full court with five-man teams. All rules of college basketball are in effect. In an attempt to create more interest in our program and to allow more students to participate, teams will be organized a new way this season (if possible). Any group of at least 7 students may organize a team to be entered in the league. A team might represent a dormitory, or John Doe might wish to form a team of his friends. Each team will be required to have a captain or organizer and must turn in a team roster. Team application blanks may be obtained from Terry Martinson (921-7093). The deadline for organizing a team is Friday, December 17, but players may be added to the roster after that date. If you have questions or reactions or can't find a team to play on, please call the above telephone number. If there is enough interest, two divisions will be formed: one for talented players and one for less experienced teams. It is hoped that this reorganization will generate a new enthusiasm in our basketball program. If this plan fails, intramural basketball teams will be organized by housing units as in past years.

BURI ON "SELF AND THE NOTHING" AT PRINCETON SEMINARY

Swiss theologian Fritz Buri returns to Princeton Seminary December 13 to deliver a public address, "The Self and the Nothing," The lecture will begin at 1:30 P.M. in the main lounge of the Campus Center. His appearance is sponsored by Koinonia.

Dr. Buri, who is Professor of Systematic Theology at the University of Basel, is also Chief Minister of Basel's historic Münster. Widely regarded as the chief interpreter of Albert Schweitzer, he is the author of more than 20 books in English, Dutch and German, the best known of which is probably "Dogmatik als Selbstverständnis des Christlichen Glaubens." He is considered a liberal theologian who, until recently opposed to the new orthodoxy, has now moved toward a creative interpretation of the traditional language of faith.

Buri is no stranger to this country. He was a visiting lecturer at Drew University in 1966-67 and spoke at Princeton during that period. In 1968-69 he was visiting lecturer at the International University, Tokyo.

A MEETING FOR MIDDLERS interested in internships will be held on Wednesday, December 8, 1971, at 7:30 P.M. in Stevenson Lounge.

COACH'S CORNER

Thursday night, December 2d, was the night for 10 teams to compete in the Seminary's first THREE MAN BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT. The tournament created much enthusiasm among the basketball buffs, and the style of play was aggressively excellent. In the semifinal games, the all-rookie team of Dick Ramsey, John Hershey and Gene Schaffer was beaten by the experienced veterans Bill Forbes, Terry Woodbury and John Yeatts. The score of this well-played match-up was 20-16. The other semifinal game saw the team of Jeff Looker, Charlie Steele and Ron Benham upset the squad composed of Steve Pierce, Tom Porter and Don Luidens. The score in this close duel was 22-20. The finals match saw a seesaw battle between the two top clubs. The team of looker, Steele and Benham took an early lead on the basis of some hot shooting in the early going. The timely outside pops of Ron Beham, the driving of Charlie Steele and the rebounding and shooting of Jeff Looker appeared to put the game on ice for their squad, but the crafty men from P.-W. were too tough in the long run. Bill Forbes, Terry Woodbury and John Yeatts just did manage to outscrap the trio from Brown Hall. The final score of this championship game was 21-19, indicating how tough an encounter it was. All three of the winner chipped in their fair share of points. The team was well balanced and well coached.

This tournament was accepted so favorably that another similar tournament will be held at the end of February.

For the past four weeks, twelve sturdy stalwarts have been practicing hard as the PRINCETON SEMINARY VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM gets in shape to improve upon last season's 5-5 record. This year's squad is paced almost entirely by rookies. Only Jeff Looker, Steve Pierce and Paul Rorem remain from last year's team. Rookies John Hershey, Dick Ramsey, George Gaffga, Ron Benham, Dave Vander Zwaag, Tom Fitch, Glen Rainsley, Gene Schaffer, Clint McCoy, Charlie Steele and Mark Lasser will help the Seminary Stars in their battles with teams from prisons, other seminars and local faculty and industrial clubs. For your pre-Christmas entertainment, the team will play the Princeton Day School faculty on Tuesday night, December 14, and the R.C.A. Industrial team on Wednesday night, December 15. The latter contest will be in Whiteley Gym; the Tuesday night encounter will be at P.D.S.

Don't forget to register your team for the P.T.S. intramural basketball league. Games will be on Tuesday nights. Any group of at least seven (7) men may enter a team in the league. Please call Terry Martinson at 921-7093 before leaving for Christmas vacation.

For only $26.00 one can obtain a ticket book for all remaining athletic contests at the University. That's right. One book admits you to all basketball, hockey, baseball, track, water polo, etc., etc., contests. These books represent quite a saving on the regular ticket price. You can purchase them at the Jadwyn Gym ticket office. Terry O. Martinson.

CALENDAR NOTES

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION SUPPER MEETING: The evening will include pot-luck supper, fellowship, Christmas carol singing, fireplace and worship. An invitation is extended to ALL members of the Seminary Community and their families. However, all planning to attend are asked to contact either Dennis Butcher at 924-9069 OR Christine Stuart at 924-5190 by Friday, December 10, at noon, so that appropriate plans can be made. Dennis Butcher, President.

ALIENATED BLACKS AND ETHNIC WHITES: Born and raised in the North Ward of Newark, MR. STEPHEN N. ADUBATO went to school with Imamu Baraka (LeRoi Jones) and Anthony Imperiale, with whom he continues to wrestle in situations involving conflicting views about the role and place of ethnic interests in contemporary urban Newark.

A teacher for many years, Mr. Adubato remains heavily embroiled in the affairs of his city. He is Chairman of the Democratic Party of Newark's North Ward, one of the largest political entities in the state. He is also associated with the National Center for Urban Ethnic Affairs, Catholic University, Washington, D.C.

"THEY CAN'T PUT IT BACK" tells in slides and song the story of the devastation of the Appalachian land and people by the mining and timber industries. A moving and powerful presentation, it evokes a complexity of feeling--response to beauty, outrage, determination, peace. The music, including the songs, is by Mike Kline, an experienced troubador of Appalachian struggle, who has two albums to his credit. Photography is by Douglas Yarrow, who has spent more than five years studying the problem. The program, which lasts about an hour, will be followed by discussion. Campus Center Auditorium. Tuesday, December 14. 9:30 P.M.
Sponsored by the Student Council.

CERCLE FRANCAIS DE PRINCETON: Miroslav A. Kriz of the First National City Bank of New York, a resident of Princeton, will address the group at a meeting on Wednesday, December 15, at 8:30 P.M. in the Faculty Lounge, Engineering Quadrangle, Princeton University. The topic of his discussion will be "Le Dollar tel qu'il est Aujourd'hui (The dollar as it stands today)." All interested French-speaking persons in the area are invited to attend. The meeting will, as usual, be followed by an informal reception with French conversation and wine.

SPECIAL NOTES

Baptism is a family affair--and the family is the Church. Whenever a person is baptized, you as a Christian are welcoming him into your family. As you participate in the service, you are also renewing the meaning of your own baptism as a death to selfishness and as the beginning of a new life of hope and joy in Christ.

Two months ago, Mary and I welcomed Peyton Markley into our family. On Thursday, December 16, at 10:00 A.M., we ask you to join with us in the Seminary Chapel to welcome him as the newest member of your family.

Peyton Craighill

Holiday Get-Together, Wednesday, December 15: A time for laughing, loving and living. Cheese provided. Fourth floor lounge, Hodge Hall, 4:30 until dinner. FOR ENTIRE SEMINARY COMMUNITY.
